210-24-8410		Daniel Durham	Individual	Daniel Durham is a local landowner with no public profile in community affairs (21). Searches of county records and news found no evidence of Durham's involvement in development discussions or civic positions (22).	unknown	Low	Engage one-on-one at his property to introduce the project and listen to any feedback. Highlight measures taken to respect the rural character and address practical issues like traffic or drainage which may matter to him.	M
210-24-8400		Drew & Elizabeth Livingston	Individual	Drew and Elizabeth Livingston jointly own their Pinal County parcel and are not known figures in local government or committees (23). No public comments or letters from the Livingston household regarding development or energy projects were located (24).	unknown	Low	Meet with them as a couple, perhaps in a neighborhood setting, to explain the project's benefits. Show respect for their privacy and address any questions about how the development will maintain the area's quality of life.	M
210-24-8390		Mitchell Howard	Individual	Mitchell Howard is listed as the owner of his parcel and has no noted positions in Pinal County boards or organizations (25). There are no records of Howard speaking at public meetings or engaging in local development debates (26).	unknown	Low	Initiate a personal conversation or send a detailed mailer outlining the project, inviting Mr. Howard to a community info session. Emphasize that his concerns (if any) are valued and that the project team is committed to addressing safety and property-related issues.	M

PINs	Adj.	Name	Type	Claims	Influence	Classification	Approach	C
21013001P		Wolfkin Farms LLC	llc	Wolfkin Farms LLC is an Arizona landholding company traced to Penny Wolfswinkel Jenkins of Mesa (²⁷). The LLC received approximately $158,024 in USDA commodity subsidies for Pinal County farming (2012–2021) (²⁸). In March 2024 Wolfkin Farms LLC sold about 154 acres in San Tan Valley to JEN Partners for $23.7 million, facilitating a major residential development (²⁹).	High	land_investment	Engage beneficial owner (Penny Wolfswinkel Jenkins) via a business approach; emphasize how the project could enhance their remaining land value or offer a lucrative buyout. Given their pro-development track record, align the proposal with profitable exit strategies	M
21024001G	✓	8159 E Bella Vista LLC	llc	8159 E. Bella Vista, LLC is a domestic Arizona LLC, named after its parcel's street address at 8159 East Bella Vista Road, Queen Creek (³⁰). No principals or activities are publicly documented beyond property ownership, indicating it's a single-property holding entity. No recorded political contributions or community initiatives were found (implying a low public profile). No state or county filings suggest any active business operations (likely formed solely to hold the real estate; e.g., no separate licensing or sales tax records located – negative search results).	Low	speculation	Contact the owner via the LLC's registered address. Emphasize a fair purchase or partnership opportunity that meets their financial expectations; personalize outreach since they appear to be a small private holder, and address any concerns about property impact	M

21037014F, 210370250, 210370200, 21037022C, 210370210	✓	Daryl Scott Darger LLC	llc	Daryl Scott Darger, L.L.C. is an Arizona domestic LLC organized on June 20, 1997 (³¹). The company's statutory agent is a third-party service (DG Service Corp), suggesting the owner (Daryl S. Darger) prefers privacy in public filings (³²). No active business operations beyond land ownership are noted; the LLC holds multiple rural parcels in Pinal County with no other licenses or UCC liens detected (indicating long-term land holding with minimal debt - confirmed by absence of financing statements in state records, per Arizona UCC search – negative result). The LLC has no visible political or community activity, and its namesake principal is not listed in local civic roles (implying a passive investor stance).	Medium	speculation	Approach principal Daryl S. Darger (via his agent or known contacts) to gauge interest in a buyout or joint development. Highlight how the project could increase his land's value or offer a profitable exit; maintain respect for his long tenure and privacy	M
21013001M, 21013001D	✓	Epcor Water AZ Inc	corporation	EPCOR Water Arizona Inc. is a private utility corporation providing water services in Pinal County (including San Tan Valley) (³³). It is a subsidiary of EPCOR Utilities (Edmonton, Canada) and took over the local water system from the troubled Johnson Utilities, improving service reliability (per Arizona Corporation Commission records of management transfer, 2018-2020 – public docket). EPCOR actively supports area development - its Arizona website invites developers for coordination and provides a "developer engineering guide" for new projects in their service areas (³⁴). The company's local operations are regulated by the ACC, and no evidence shows it engaging in anti-development actions; instead, it typically seeks infrastructure investment cost recovery through rate cases (as seen in ACC filings where EPCOR advocates funding new wells and treatment for growth – regulatory filings).	High	municipal	Coordinate early with EPCOR's regional management to ensure the project's water and wastewater needs are planned for. Address any infrastructure upgrades jointly and emphasize community benefits to align with EPCOR's public service mission; their support can mitigate utility-related opposition	M

21037014D	✓	Skogebo Family LLC	llc	Skogebo Family LLC (formally Skogebo & Co LLC) was formed in Arizona on April 29, 2021 (³⁵). It is managed by Jocelyn M. Skogebo and David P. Skogebo of Mesa, AZ, and owned via their D&J Skogebo Family Trust (³⁶). The entity holds at least one Pinal County land parcel and shows no other active business operations (no records of commercial activity or licenses beyond the land holding). No public stances or community engagements by the Skogebo family were found; their involvement appears limited to property ownership and estate planning (the 2021 trust suggests succession planning rather than development initiatives).	Medium	land_investment	Engage the Skogebo family (through David or Jocelyn) diplomatically to understand their long-term plans. Offer solutions that could increase their land's future value or provide an exit strategy; emphasize respect for their legacy and assure the project won't undermine their property's worth	M
800181210, 800180790, 800180760, 800180770	✓	Pinal County	municipal	Pinal County is the local government with jurisdiction over land use in the project area (³⁷). The County emphasizes a "strong pro-business climate" and supports projects that foster "sustainable economic growth" (³⁸). The elected Board of Supervisors holds approval authority on zoning and development, making county support critical for any new project (³⁹).	High	municipal	Engage County officials (Board of Supervisors, Planning Dept) early; highlight tax benefits and ensure project aligns with county plans to secure support	M

The company has acquired dozens of parcels in Pinal County for a planned residential subdivision ("Palomino Ranch") (41). As a homebuilder, Meritage's focus on selling homes means it values neighboring uses that preserve community appeal (industrial projects nearby could be seen as a threat to property values).	High	land_investment	Engage Meritage's regional executives directly; address any concerns about project impacts on their housing development; offer solutions (buffer zones, design tweaks) to maintain property values and buyer appeal	M

Its sole member is listed as Arroyo Capital III, LLC, reflecting a parent investment fund structure (43). Arroyo Capital specializes in residential land development finance, with "over 7,000 lots acquired" across master-planned communities (44). In Pinal County, Arroyo Cap III-2 LLC owns numerous vacant parcels likely held for future homebuilding (no active local operations to date).	Medium	land_investment	Approach via Arroyo Capital's asset managers; emphasize that the project will not diminish (and could enhance) future housing land value; explore cooperative infrastructure improvements to align interests	M

21037013X	✓	Travis81 Llc	llc	Travis81 LLC is an Arizona limited liability company that owns approximately 11.23 acres of land in the Gold Canyon area of Pinal County (45). The tract is vacant and listed for sale at about $5.98 million, marketed as a site for "needed businesses for the community" (retail/restaurant, etc.) (46) (47). No active business operations or public profile are associated with this LLC, indicating a purely speculative land investment (48).	Low	speculation	Engage the owner through their listing broker; consider a buyout or partnership to incorporate their parcel, ensuring the project does not undercut its commercial sale potential	M

21037013P		Lot I LLC	llc	Lot I LLC holds another portion of the Gold Canyon site (Section 7, T1S R9E) adjacent to Travis81's parcel (49). The land is being marketed as part of an ~11-acre "commercial sale" opportunity, aimed at bringing in needed local businesses (50) (51). This LLC has no known operations beyond owning the land, which suggests its role is speculative (waiting for a profitable sale).	Low	speculation	Coordinate outreach via the same real estate brokers; if feasible, negotiate acquisition or ensure the project design supports the parcel's commercial viability to alleviate opposition	M
